Customer Reviews

If you're a fan of Jim Brickman, you will love this Patriotic Piano book. His piano books are written where an intermediate pianist can play them. Most of the songs are in easy keys. He does have quite a bit of syncopation, so I find that a little hard sometimes. I have some of his other piano books, for instance "Faith". I have found the CD's with his music are just like the piano book arrangements. It helps me to listen to the CD first and then attempt to learn the piano songs. Absolutely beautiful arrangements. Have used many of his songs for church offertories, and people love them. I give it a "Thumbs Up!"

Amazing album. It's a great compilation including new songs and songs from several albums. Although I own many other original albums from Jim, it's Always good to have a compilation with some of your favorites, so you don't need to carry all of them.

The book was received in a timely fashion, in good condition. The compilation is a good variety of his music for the advanced pianist. I find it challenging and very playable with practice.
